The French mail steamer Cambodge had arrived there en route to this. The Lightning brought on an issue of Straits Times Extra containing the intelligence by the Cambodge, which was delivered to policy of expediency, to which I have already The whole under the Superintendence of expe- subscribers with all dispatch yesterday even-

The news from both the United States and the Duchies is most unfavorable.

WE regret to say that through inadvertence meeting of the Legislative Council which of moral force. For Dock Charges, or further particulars, apply took place on the 20th ulto. for the purpose is the more to be regretted because it cannot be rectified, and although our contemporary appears to have had a reporter there, still the mystification of Government accounts appears to have puzzled bim. The Estimates for deil was and therefore it does appear most strange, that although less was spent than was voted yet that a supplemental vote to the extent of $151,000 should be required. We incline to the belief that under certain headings there was not sufficient voted, whilet under other headings there was more voted than there was expended. Under such circumstances, a supplemental vote would be required for the excesses, and hence the application. We also incline to the belief that mismanagement and reticence are alone to magnitude of the impending struggle,blame and that the financial condition of the colony although far from favorable, is not so bad as we concluded it was. According to the amended statement published, the Revenue for 1863 was, $576,375.30 vear being,....
